Policies

- For new clients, primetime appointments, or after multiple cancelations, a one-half session deposit will be required to schedule an appointment.
- Payments are due at the end of each session. Any insufficient fund will incur a $35.00 fee.
- A 24 hour notice is required if a client needs to cancel or reschedule an appointment. Emergencies will be considered. If a client is late, that time will be deducted from the session time and fees will remain the same. Flexibility may be possible if no other appointments are scheduled. A short notice of cancellation or a no-show will result in a One-half session fee for the time scheduled.
- Inappropriate behavior will not be tolerated at any time. Any inappropriate behavior will result in the client being asked to leave immediately and being charged full price for the session. Please do not undress while the therapist is in the room.
- Updates needed in the clients file is the responsibility of the client to communicate with the therapist.
- Weight limit of the table is 300lb. Anyone weighing more is strongly discouraged from using the table for their own safety and to avoid damaging the table. Resulting damages will be the responsibility of the client.
- Services are not to replace medical treatment of any kind. Information exchanged during any massage session is educational in nature and intended to help the client become more familiar and conscious of their own health status and is to be used at their own discretion. New clients, clients with multiple cancellations, or clients requesting Prime appointments may be required to place a deposit equal to One-half of the session.
